

Our 2006 grand prize winner of the 2nd Annual Art Contest for youth sponsored by the La Jolla Shores Surfing Association, Katie Volker, grew up in La Jolla Shores and attends Francis Parker School in the 6th grade. Katie has taken art classes for several years and enjoys art because "you are able to express your feelings and have fun". She drew this picture for the contest because "I thought it showed off the beauty of La Jolla Shores." Other hobbies include softball, going to the beach, and surfing! Katie isn't sure about what she wants to be when she grows up, but maybe she'll be an artist!

Katie's winning drawing (pictured below) together with our other top picks are now on display through the end of March at the La Jolla Riford Library & Jacobs Annex, 7555 Draper Ave.
